

The insider's guide to SHOPPING
in Toronto

Produced for the 2014 IABC World Conference
March 2014

IABC/Toronto logo
PIC logo

You'll find many more stores in Toronto than are listed here, but the recommendations in this guide are based on the personal adventures of IABC/Toronto's own members. The recommended stores are mostly a short walk or transit ride away from the Sheraton Centre. You'll find more suggestions at BlogTO.com, <http://www.torontolife.com/> and www.yelp.ca.

Thanks so much to Christina Scicluna Wong for her shopping expertise, and to Teri McMahon, R.G.D., for the layout. Enjoy!

Shopping areas

You can shop in Toronto seven days a week. Where an area has specific hours, these are noted below. For information on transit routes and schedules, call the Toronto Transit Commission (TTC) at 416-393-4636; fares are $3 cash.

Eaton Centre

<http://www.torontoeatoncentre.com/>

If you're sneaking out between conference sessions and have limited time, your best bet is the Eaton Centre. From the Sheraton, it's just a few minutes' walk east to Yonge St. The mall holds more than 230 retailers, restaurants and services. Open weekdays from 10 a.m. to 9:30 p.m.; Saturdays from 9:30 a.m. to 9:30 p.m.; and Sundays, 10 a.m. to 7 p.m.

Distillery District

<http://www3.thedistillerydistrict.com/>

The historic Distillery District is home to theatres, galleries, boutiques and restaurants. It's about a 25-minute walk from the Sheraton. Hours of operation are Monday through Friday, 11 a.m. to 7 p.m.; Saturday, 10 a.m. to 8 p.m.; and Sunday, 11 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Kensington Market

<http://www.kensington-market.ca/>

Kensington Market offers vintage shops, books, rare vinyl and CDs, independent designers and inexpensive basics. It's about a 25-minute walk from the Sheraton. The market is open seven days a week, with best shopping between 11 a.m. and 7 p.m.

King Street West

King Street is a major east/west commercial thoroughfare marked by edgy design, antique and vintage shops. From the Sheraton, it's about a 20-minute walk.

Little Italy

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Little_Italy,_Toronto

This trendy district has a warm, European atmosphere. Most of the shopping -- for innovative Canadian designs, hip fashion and more -- plus restaurants and bars are found along College St. It's about a 45-minute walk from the Sheraton.

Queen Street West

Queen St. W. is where you go to find everything trendy, artsy and funky. It covers roughly Yonge St. to Bathurst St. and beyond and is about a 20-minute walk.

St. Lawrence Market

<http://www.stlawrencemarket.com/>

More than 120 specialty merchants meet at Front St. and Jarvis St. Open Tuesday to Thursday from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. and Friday 8 a.m. to 7 p.m. There is also a farmers' market Saturdays from 5 a.m. to 3 p.m. and an antique market Sundays from 5 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Yorkville

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Yorkville,_Toronto

This area has been compared to Fifth Avenue in New York, Rodeo Drive in Los Angeles and the Magnificent Mile in Chicago. The area is lined with labels such as Gucci, Hermes and Prada and Canadian retail icons Harry Rosen and Holt Renfrew.

Department stores

Toronto's big department stores offer one-stop shopping for accessories, cosmetics, clothing (men's, women's and children's), jewelry, housewares and more.

Holt Renfrew / Yorkville

<http://www.holtrenfrew.com/>

50 Bloor St. W. at Bay St.
